

Faculty's Choice Downtown State College

Restaurants

Allen Street Grill

<http://www.allenstreetgrill.com/>

100 West College Avenue (814) 237-3051

In the heart of downtown State College, Pennsylvania, the Allen Street Grill offers traditional and contemporary American cuisine, and late night specials. With an incredible view of the gates to Penn State and its famous Mall, the porch is the place to dine in downtown State College.

The Deli – an American Kitchen

<http://www.dantesinc.com/locations/the-deli-z-bar/>

113 Heister Street (814) 237-5170

Since 1973, The Deli has served up New York-style deli favorites on an American menu offering everything from comfort food to pub favorites. Local and homemade from scratch ... Their very own soups, breads, sauces and award-winning desserts are made early in the morning.

Cozy Thai Bistro

<http://cozythaibistro.com/1.html>

232 South Allen Street (814) 237-0139

At Cozy Thai Bistro, various kinds of fresh herbs and spices, as well as imported Thai seasonings are incorporated in food preparation. The menu includes appetizers, soups, and popular Thai entrees such as Pad Thai, Tom Yum, and Red or Green Curry.

Spats Café & Speakeasy Restaurant

<http://site.spatscafe.com/>

142 East College Avenue (814) 238-7010

Spats offers the best of New Orleans (pronounced N'Awlins or New Oy-uns if you're local). Serving the best traditional Cajun and Creole, Tapas and "demi" portions of regular lunch and dinner entrees are offered.

Sichuan Bistro

<http://sichuanbistro PSU.com>

332 West College Avenue (814) 234-1102

Specializing in authentic Szechuan cuisine.

Seoul Garden Korean Restaurant

<https://www.statecollege.com/dining/3212/seoul-garden-korean-restaurant/>

129 South Locust Street (814) 237-7444

India Pavilion

<http://indiapavilion.net/>

222 East Calder Way (814) 237-3400

Enjoy an upscale and elegant meal. Since 1997, the India Pavilion proudly serves authentic North Indian cuisine featuring vegetarian and non-vegetarian dishes prepared with the finest ingredients and carefully selected blend of spices. You may select the spiciness of each dish – mild, medium or hot – to suit your individual preference.

The Tavern Restaurant

<http://thetavern.com/>

220 East College Avenue (814) 238-6116

Relax among rare and historic Pennsylvania lithographs and memorabilia at The Tavern. Fresh seafood, veal and prime rib are specialties. Dinner at the Tavern is a long-standing tradition in State College and Penn State since 1948.

Zola New World Bistro

<http://www.zolabistro.com/>

324 West College Avenue (814) 237-8474

At Zola, there is an atmosphere of casual elegance and urban chic. The concept combines a comfortable, modern, and fresh decor with exciting, creative cuisine, and exceptional service. Zola has an expansive, open kitchen, allowing patrons to be part of a dynamic culinary experience. Zola believes in fresh, innovative food. Menus incorporate local, organic, and regional ingredients.